

My favourite book is 'Harry Potter and the prisoner of Azkaban' by J.K. Rowling. It's a fictional story about a boy who is a wizard. Harry is a son of James Potter and Lily Potter but he was raised by his mom's sister and her husband. Harry's dad was pure-blood, his mom was a muggle-born. It makes Harry a half-blood. The whole series about the boy includes seven books but in my opinion that one is the best.

Harry is in his third year at the School of Witchcraft and Wizardry called Hogwarts. Students always go to Hogwarts by a train which is full of dementors. A dementor is a kind of ghost that guards a prison. It all happens because Harry's godfather Sirius Black escapes from the worst prison for wizards – Azkaban. Harry, Hermione and Ron realize that Sirius didn't kill Harry's parents, they help him clear himself of the multiple murder charges. Sirius was suspected of killing Peter Pettigrew and eight muggles. In the third part we meet a new black magic teacher, we watch the gamekeeper Hagrid in a new role. We also go out with the third class to Hogsmeade.

It's my favourite book because I like fictional books and movies. While reading it, you can go to another world, I wish I lived in. The whole series made me read more.

I think it's a good book choice for everyone. The book is funny and sometimes sad, it makes it very interesting. It's super addicting, when you start – you can't stop. I think everyone should consider reading it.